RELEASE FOR CRIMINAL HISTORY BACKGROUND CHECK

It is the policy of the Galveston County Food Bank to conduct thorough criminal records checks on all employee applicants and volunteer applicants who may have direct contact with clients or may have access to client information. The background check may include gathering information from local authorities, Texas Department of Public Safety, Federal Bureau of Investigation or Publicdata.com.

The existence of a criminal record does not necessarily mean exclusion from consideration for employment or volunteer services. Each situation should be discussed with appropriate staff and the determination for employment or volunteer services will be made based on the circumstances of the criminal act. Refusal to participate in the background check or to provide necessary information to complete the background check will immediately exclude you from consideration for employment or volunteer services.
